

Luchessa MP 78.3

Rule 262 (Reversing Direction):
Mandates that once a direction of traffic has been established for a train in bi-directional territory, the train must not move in the opposite direction without proper interlocking signal indications or direct permission from the train dispatcher.

active